Dear Mr. McCone:

On behalf of Lieutenant General Francis Griswold, USAF, Commandant of the National War College, and Vice Admiral Rufus E. Rose, USN, Commandant of the Industrial College of the Armed Forces, it is my pleasure in Admiral Rose's absence to extend to you a most cordial invitation to address the members of the two Colleges in joint session.

The address is scheduled at 8:45 a.m. Tuesday, 9 October 1962 at the Industrial College on the subject, "Intelligence Considerations in National Security Policy."

We hope that you will be able to accept our invitation and to remain after the lecture for a discussion period with a group of National War College students. A luncheon is also planned with a small group of students and faculty from the two Colleges.

I sincerely hope that the Commandants may have the pleasure of welcoming you to the two Colleges.

Sincerely,

JAMES B. QUILL
